

AGM and National Conference

Tuesday November 26th 2013

Scottish Police College, Tulliallan

NOEA are very pleased to announce details for this year's AGM and conference. It will be held at the Scottish Police College at Tulliallan Castle, Kincardine FK10 4BE, hosted by NOEA Scotland.

We have a tremendous day planned with speakers, Geoff Ellis of T in the Park, Gordon Arthur of the 2014 Commonwealth Games, Stuart Turner of Event Scotland, John Gilligan of Tennents and Alex Hill of the Met Office plus many more discussing their experiences and life at events. With tickets for members costing only £25.00 plus vat (which includes buffet lunch and coffee breaks) it is a day not to be missed, plus associations such as IOSH and EPS will recognise the conference as part of your continued personal development (CPD).

So put the date in your diary, click on the link to Eventbrite to purchase your ticket and come along, meet the President, Chief Executive, the General Council and network with like minded folk in the event industry.

NOEA are delighted to welcome our sponsors:-

Wernick Event Hire Limited is long time member of NOEA who have utilised the services of the association to their benefit on many occasions. The NOEA policy to educate, advise and enhance professionalism has brought us together with like minded companies who strive to excel in there field and share best practises which only goes to show this strategy works.

Wernick Event Hire opened its new Scottish office in May of this year and has enjoyed a very successful 2013 season. We are offering a comprehensive range of products for the events industry which include but not limited to showers, toilets, sleeper units, ticket booths, offices and changing rooms.

Wernick Event Hire Scotland offers us a unique opportunity to fulfil our client's requirements. We are keen to market and promote our new fledgling business through our NOEA membership and look forward to strengthening our existing relationships and developing new ones
